

Public Holidays

Fixed date holidays

To-Be-Set - Foundation Day

Commemorates the date in which the country has reached full autonomy after the construction period. State buildings bear bunting and imagery of the country.

January 1st - New year's day

Commemorates the new year and allowing people time to plan for the year ahead. Citizens are encouraged to celebrate conventionally.

February 10th - Culture Day

A day for any member of the community to participate in an artistic pursuit. Exhibitions composed of people's work are displayed for a week with small awards being presented. Years will usually hold a theme.

March 30th - Admiration for the Earth

A day when people are expected to enjoy the natural world through picnics in the central park or by visiting the neighbouring nations for scenic walks / hiking.

April 11th - Freedom day

A day which reminds citizens of their freedoms that are enshrined in international law and celebrates them. Awareness is given to those in debt bondage, indentured servitude or unjust situations.

May 5th - Youth's day

A day to bring awareness to people under 16 and their well-being. Parents are motivated to engage with the studies or hobbies of their children; likewise providing something to further their pursuits.

July 2nd - Day of Dandelions

A day to celebrate those who work directly with the Dandelion project and its success.

August 5th - Elder's day

A day to bring awareness to people over 60 and their well-being. Citizens are motivated to gather for a meal with the elders regardless of relation. The state should aim to bring together people of this age range with raffles, banquets and celebrating achievements of said people.

September 25th - Growth Day

A day for citizens to embark on learning a new skill or craft. Similar to culture day citizens may present their crafts in an open exhibition for the public to view.

December 2nd - Day of remembrance

A day for which people mourn those lost. This extends to people whom have died due to war and conflict. Citizens are free to practice ceremonies and religious practices in public spaces (so long that it does not qualify as protest or obstructs / offends the public).

Floating date holidays

Mid Summer [June] - Festival of Fire

A day for providing other's 'wants', usually things that are temporary or exciting. The state hosts a free public barbeque in the city park for all those who want to attend.

Mid Winter [December] - Festival of Water

A day for providing other's 'needs', usually booking health appointments, spa treatments or activities that promote mental health. Citizens are motivated to clean their house and workspace.

Last Friday of November - Day of Respect

A day for people to show their respect to other members of their community. Compliments, hand-written cards or inexpensive gifts are given to those who helped you in the year prior. The citizens elect a person of the year.

Chosen by Head of State - Benefaction

Citizens are motivated to participate or donate to charities. This date also coincides with cleaning public spaces by the citizens to build community spirit

Last Monday of October - The Great Gathering

A state-wide athletics tournament of varying disciplines and age groups. Events include: A city-wide marathon, archery contest, various ball sports and less athletics events for the younger and older communities, It is essential that the whole city is involved in some way. Communal feasting is done at the end of the day.

Leap year extra day -

This is just a free day off. No one wants to work an extra day a year.